About the brand

Where Weiso comes from: early mornings, late nights, and a nickname earned in the iso.

Who we are

BRAND STATEMENT — 2 SENTENCES

Weiso makes clean, tough basketball clothing for the hooper everyone on the court watches. Made to play in, made to be noticed, for players who work in silence and let their game do the talking.

WHY THIS BRAND EXISTS

Weiso was started by Fredrik, a hooper who trained early mornings and late nights, working in silence while nobody knew. It paid off: in games he became unguardable, and the court gave him a nickname: Iso. Few brands made tough, clean shorts for players like that, so he built one.

WE + ISO. WE is the hooper everyone on the court watches: hard-working, tough, humble, focused. ISO is the 1v1, and the nickname that started it all.

WHAT WE KNOW THAT COMPETITORS DON'T

Our customer cares what others think about them.

On the court and online, they want to look tough and get noticed for what they wear.

So they look up to the tough hoopers: the ones who play pickup and 1v1s, grind every day and put in the hard work.

That’s why Weiso puts its gear on those hoopers. When others see what they wear, they want it too, because every young hooper wants to be the WE: the one everyone watches.

Vision, mission, values

VISION — THE WORLD YOU'RE BUILDING

Every court in the world has a WE: the hooper everyone watches, studies and wants to match up against, wearing Weiso. Weiso becomes the name young players connect with the 1v1 and the silent work behind it.

MISSION — WHAT YOU DO EVERY DAY

We design clean, tough basketball clothing made to play in and made to be noticed. We put it on the hoopers people watch and film their pickup runs, 1v1s and workouts, so young players everywhere see the work behind the game, and put in their own.

VALUES — 4 TO 6, EACH WITH A SENTENCE

1. Work in silence. We show the grind, not the hype. Nobody needs to know about the hours until they show in the game.

2. Tough by design. If a piece can’t survive a real pickup run, it doesn’t drop.

3. Clean over loud. If a graphic makes a piece louder but not better, it’s out.

4. Be the WE. Hard-working, tough, humble, focused: the hooper everyone watches. Everything we make and post is for them.

Brand personality

PERSONALITY IN 4 WORDS

Tough · Humble · Nonchalant · Hard-working
Meeting Weiso should feel like the quiet hooper at pickup who doesn’t say much, then cooks everyone.

THE FEELINGS A CUSTOMER MOVES THROUGH

From first look to loyalty:

1. Noticed
2. Curious

TRAIT 01

Tough

Heavy block lettering, black and white, real courts, never studios. The brand looks like it can take a hit.

TRAIT 02

Humble

TRAIT 04

Hard-working

We show the reps: early mornings, late nights, sweat, losing and coming back. The grind is the content.

02

Brand voice & messaging

How the WE talks: quiet, confident, and never louder than the work.

How we sound

OUR VOICE IN ONE SENTENCE

We talk like a hooper who's been in the gym since 6am while nobody knew: short, calm, confident. We don't shout and we don't beg. We let the work and the hoopers do the talking.

WE ALWAYS SOUND LIKE

— Confident, never cocky
— Short, never lazy
— Tough, never mean
— Real hooper talk, never cringe slang
— About the work, never about the hype

WE NEVER SOUND LIKE

If it sounds like an ad, rewrite it.

— Corporate: "Elevate your game with our premium performance apparel."
— Begging: "Please like and share!!", "Link in bio 🙏🙏"
— Fake hype: "Best shorts in the world", "Almost sold out!" when it isn't — Trying too hard: forced slang, walls of emojis
— Trash talk about other brands or players

Messaging framework

Write it once here, then copy it everywhere. Nobody on your team should ever be inventing this copy again.

WORDS WE NEVER USE

03

Logo & identity

The WI icon: WE and ISO locked into one mark, and the rules that keep it strong.

Logo concept

THE THINKING BEHIND THE MARK

The WI icon is the main logo.
It locks a W and an I into one shape: the W for WE, the I for ISO, standing straight up through the middle like a hooper alone in the iso. The WEISO wordmark (heavy, blocky jersey lettering) is only used with it or alone when the name must be read.

HOW PEOPLE SHOULD PERCEIVE IT

Tough · Clean · Athletic · Confident
It should feel like a crest on a jersey: serious, strong and made for the court.

The logo suite

PRIMARY LOGO

The WI icon. The main Weiso logo: product, profile picture, website header, tags, stickers. The default choice.

Min. size: 32 px digital / 1 cm print

SECONDARY · FULL LOGO

Icon above the name. When people need to read the name: packaging, documents, email header, press.

Min. size: 120 px digital / 3 cm print

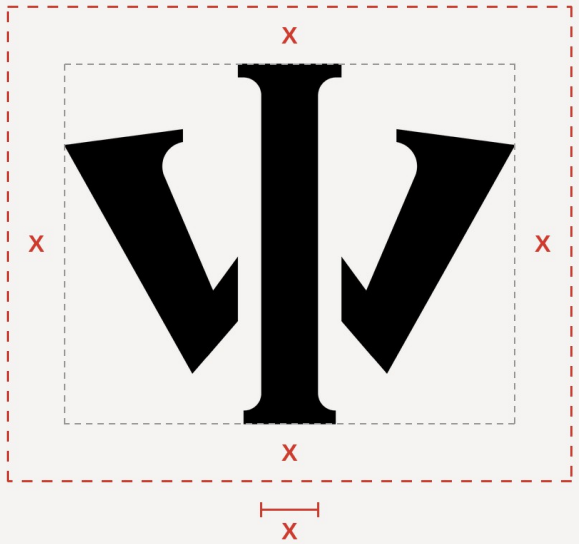

WORDMARK

The name alone. Wide or small spaces: the waistband or leg of shorts, mobile header, ad lower-thirds.

Min. size: 100 px wide / 2.5 cm print

Official files: the WI icon as white and black transparent PNGs. The full logo and wordmark support it. A badge can be added later.

Clear space & file formats

CLEAR SPACE RULE

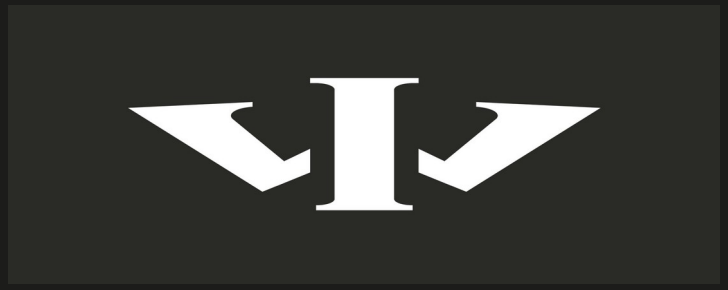

X = the width of the I in the middle of the icon.
Keep at least X of empty space on every side of the logo. No text, edges, other logos or seams inside that space. The same X applies to the full logo and the wordmark.

FILE FORMATS & WHEN TO USE EACH

White on black: the main version. Social, website, dark products.
Black on white: light backgrounds, packaging, documents.
White or black on transparent PNG: on top of photos, video and products.
SVG / EPS: vector files for print, embroidery and resizing. Ask the designer.
PNG / JPG: PNG for digital, JPG for documents.

Never do this

If you’re unsure, use the white WI icon on a plain black background.

Don't stretch or squash

Don’t recolour it: black or white only

Don't rotate or tilt

Don't add effects or shadows

Don't place on a busy background

Don't rebuild it in another font

04

Typography

Two fonts. Tall and tough for the headline, clean for everything else. Nothing extra.

The type system

H2 · Section	32 pt · Antonio
H3 · Subhead	20 pt · Antonio

NEVER DO THIS

- Never use the header font for running body copy — it stops being readable past two lines.
- Never use the body font for hero headlines — the brand will look generic immediately.
- Never introduce a third font. Two is the whole system.
- Never set Antonio below 18 pt / 24 px. It gets too thin and cramped to read.
- Never stretch, compress or distort either font. If the layout doesn't work, change the layout.
- Never set text in grey on black. Anything people must read is black or white.

05

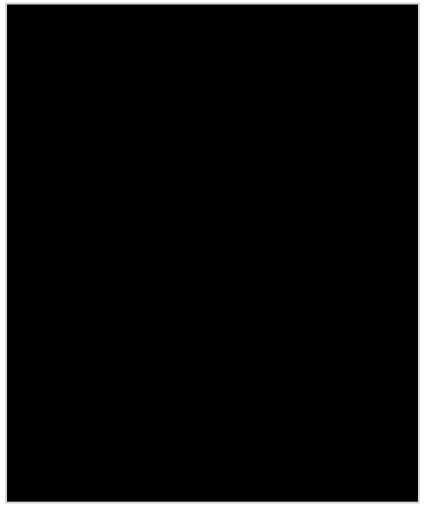

Color palette

Black and white, like an empty gym before sunrise. The products bring the colour.

The palette

What each colour does

COLOUR PSYCHOLOGY — ONE PARAGRAPH PER COLOUR

Black and white is the most honest choice: nothing to hide behind, like an iso.

Black: tough, serious, strong. The colour of early mornings and late nights in an empty gym. It makes the product look hard.
White: clean and sharp. It gives black room to breathe and makes the logo pop.
Concrete: the court and the concrete. Quiet, for details only.
Asphalt: outdoor courts. A softer black for big screen areas.
Chalk: chalk lines and clean paper. A softer white for printed pieces.

USAGE RATIO

60 / 30 / 10
Black 60% · White 30% · Greys 10%. Black leads: backgrounds, packaging, logo. White is for the logo, text and space. Greys only for small details.

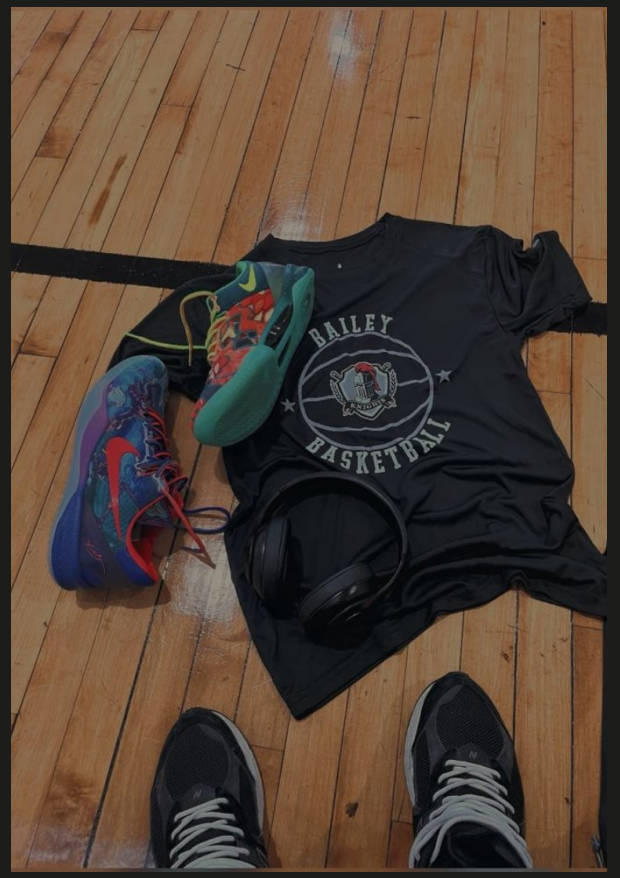

COLOUR RULES & COMBINATIONS

White logo on black, Asphalt or photos. Black logo on white or Chalk. Never grey on black or grey on grey for anything people must read. Products can come in any colour. Everything around them (logo, text, ad frames, packaging, website) stays black and white, so the colours of the product pop.

06

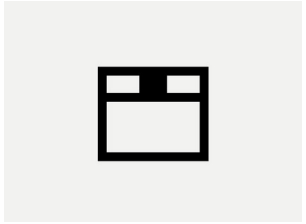

Iconography & elements

The small pieces, kept as quiet and clean as the brand.

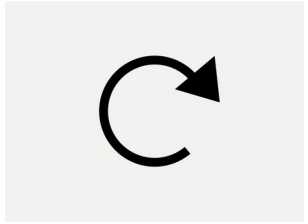

Icons & graphic elements

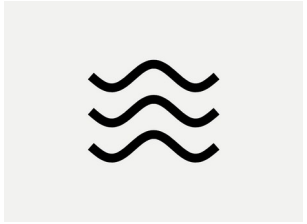

Four simple icons for the shop, product pages and packaging. Drafts: the designer redraws them in the final Weiso style.

08

Creative direction

The brief for every shoot: film the WE, show the work nobody sees.

Photography direction

THE ONE-SENTENCE BRIEF

Film the WE doing the work nobody sees: a documentary of the grind, never a catalogue in a studio.

PRINCIPLE 01 — LIGHT

Early mornings and late nights: court lights, deep shadows. Day: hard sun, strong contrast. Think: an empty gym at 6am, a lit outdoor court at 10pm.

PRINCIPLE 02 — ENVIRONMENT

Outdoor courts, indoor gyms, streets. Real surfaces: asphalt, chain-link fences, worn wood floors. Banned: studios, plain backdrops, bedrooms.

PRINCIPLE 03 — THE SUBJECT

Mostly real: pickup games, 1v1s, workouts, sweat. Some posed shots of hoopers: calm, confident, rarely smiling, not always looking at the camera.

PRINCIPLE 04 — THE PRODUCT

Worn, never laid flat in ads. The shorts move with the player. Every shoot needs at least one shot where the logo and product colour are easy to see.

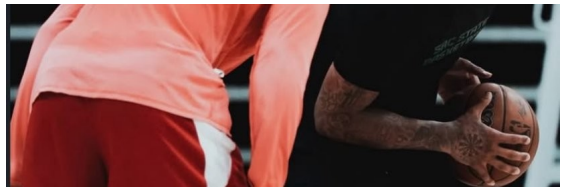

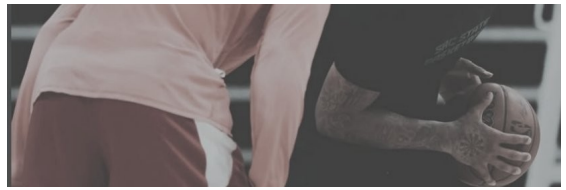

Grading, do's & don'ts

COLOUR GRADING — APPLY TO EVERY IMAGE BEFORE PUBLISHING

High contrast, deep blacks, slightly cool shadows. Keep product colours true: never shift the colour of the shorts. Light grain on night shots is fine. Black-and-white edits are allowed for mood shots, never for product shots.

AI-GENERATED CONTENT POLICY

No AI-generated people, courts or products in anything we post or advertise. The hoopers are real and the work is real; that's the brand. AI is only for help behind the scenes: removing backgrounds, cleaning noise, drafting captions.

ALWAYS	NEVER
 Real game moment, player mid-move	 Blurry, missed moment
 Night court, hard light, deep shadows	 Flat, grey, washed-out edit
 Product clear, in true colour	 Filter that changes the product colour

Ads & content rules

STATIC AD RULES

Keep 10% free space at the edges for app buttons.

MUST:

— White-on-black logo, bottom corner or end frame
— One short line of copy, in Antonio
— A real hooper in Weiso, product clearly visible

NEVER:

— More than 2 lines of text on the image
— Discount bursts, stickers or extra colours
— Stock photos or AI-generated people

VIDEO & UGC RULES

Hook in the first 1–2 seconds: a move, a crossover, a bucket. Captions in Inter, white, lower third. Hard hip-hop or drill beats. Pace follows the play. Last frame: logo + “The work shows in the iso.”

Creators can change:
the moves, the court, the music, their own words.

Creators can’t change:
the logo, the slogan, the fonts, or add other brands.

The work shows in the iso.
